DEPOSITORY ADMINISTRATION BRANCH CHIEF IS APPOINTED

The Library Programs Service is pleased to announce that Miss Sheila M. McGarr has been selected as Chief of the Depository Administration Branch effective March 30, 1987. Sheila joined the Library Division in December 1981 as a Depository Library Inspector. She is well known to many librarians through her presentations at state chapter meetings of GODORT and her inspections of 414 depositories throughout the United States. She is keenly aware of the operational challenges and fiscal realities facing both the libraries and GPO.

A 1971 graduate of Merrimack College in North Andover, MA, Sheila received her MSLS from the Catholic University of America in 1973. Prior to joining GPO, she was employed at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, VA, from 1976 to 1981 and at North Shore Community College in Beverly, MA, from 1973 to 1976.

COMMEMORATION OF THE BICENTENNIAL OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION

The G.P.O. Marketing Office is preparing a sales flyer featuring publications that concern the Constitution and our Nation's heritage. A display containing selected publications will also be available for loan to depository libraries. For more information concerning the availability of flyers or the display, please call Jan Erickson at (202) 275-3635.
